

Garrett J. Williams

Attorney

gwilliams@stevensclay.org | (509) 838-8330

Practice Summary

Garrett Williams is a litigator who advises and defends public school districts and other large employers on a broad range of legal issues, including labor and employment, general liability, special education, and insurance and risk pool defense.

Garrett's litigation experience includes defending against actions brought in state and federal courts, administrative hearings, statutory hearings, and arbitrations. Garrett also defends against investigations by administrative agencies, conducts neutral workplace investigations, and advises employers on their internal policies and procedures.

Practice Groups

Labor & Employment; Special Education; Litigation

Education

J.D., Gonzaga University School of Law, 2017 summa cum laude (2nd in Class)

B.A., University of Washington, 2011

Professional Background

Stevens Clay, P.S., Attorney, 2021-Present and 2016-2019

Paine Hamblen, LLP, Attorney, 2021

Lagasse Branch Bell & Kinkead, LLP, Attorney, 2019-2021

Washington State Court of Appeals, Judicial Extern, 2016

Bar Admissions

Washington State Bar, 2017; Idaho State Bar, 2020

U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Washington, 2020

U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington, 2020

U.S. District Court, District of Idaho, 2020

Personal

Garrett is married and has two children, a son and daughter. In his free time, Garrett runs marathons, rides dirt bikes, camps in the mountains, and travels as often as he can.